MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS. tizauship Wanted-An Appeal to the Legislature.

Editors Appeal—It is evident from the action of State governments in creating those of cities that it was never designed that the latter should be administered by politicians, as such. It has, therefore, happened that the Democratic party of Memphis has never effected a merely municipal coremisation. When neededuist and pal organization. When presidential an other contents were pending, we had war other and ward associations, but there we never recognized a Memphis Democrati never recognized a mempais Democrate association, separate and distinct from that of the county of Shelby, and designed to control the result of city contests. In this the party has asted wisely and well. State governments and wise law-givers have often recognized the wide difference between "municipal" and "political" elec-tions. In former years, even as late as

Who, then, would not have the principle already asserted in the city charter extended to all incorporated towns and cities? Towns and cities are created for commercial purposes.
